

Dr. Jyotirajan Beuria is a postdoctoral fellow at IKSMHA Center, IIT Mandi. He earned his Integrated M.S. in Physics (2007-2012) from IIT Roorkee with an institute silver medal and obtained a PhD in theoretical High-Energy Physics (2012-2017) from Harish-Chandra Research Institute. Since 2018, he has also been the PI for the Institute for Science and Spirituality Delhi, an IKS Center operating under the IKS Division of the Ministry of Education, Govt. of India.

His research interests span multiple disciplines, including theoretical physics, computational geometry, physics of complex systems, cognitive neuroscience, and Indian philosophy.

Google Scholar profile: <https://scholar.google.co.in/citations?user=D4kiwSgAAAAJ&hl=en>